

Loly Gaitan, PhD

Programme Officer

International Telecommunication Union (ITU)

Twitter: @lolygaitan

Email: loly.gaitan@itu.int

Loly Gaitan is a Programme Officer in the Digital Networks and Society Department at ITU. She specializes in analyzing international policy and development, partnership relations, and providing technical assistance to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals, with a particular focus on SDG5 Gender Equality. Before joining ITU, Loly worked for the International Trade Centre's flagship initiative for women's economic empowerment, SheTrades, where she supported women entrepreneurs in developing and least developed countries to succeed in international markets. Loly has also worked for international think tanks and universities as a researcher and lecturer on topics such as international policy, business, innovation and entrepreneurship, international law, development, and political science. She is a lawyer and political scientist and holds a Ph.D. in International Law and Economics from Bocconi University, Italy, an LLM in International Law from ITC-ILO and Turin University, and a Master's in Public Policy from the University of Los Andes, Colombia.