

Ms Fozia Endrias

Founder and Executive Director

Fozia Endrias is a young entrepreneur who works as a fashion designer. Her background in architecture has served as a source of influence for her fashion. She graduated first in her class in fashion design at Next Fashion Design School. In 2016, she also won the final year competition organized by the school. Fozia draws inspiration from her surrounding environment, especially the non-physical elements. As an art form, she believes in fashion's power to express ideas, capture the existing time and situation, and ability to promote and preserve the traditions of society.
