

Larissa Glidja-Yao a Native from Ivory Coast, is a lawyer specialized in business law and human rights. She was research assistant at the Center for Advanced Studies in Law and Economics (CASTLE) and at the Institute for International Private and Comparative Law. She is a Lecturer at the Umwelt Campus, and a consultant to private firms in Luxembourg. Convinced that connectivity solutions is an essential means for the realisation of human rights, she joined DeFuTech and leads the Legal unit, providing global insights on legal implications of our connectivity initiatives.