

Luiz Fausto has over 20 years of experience in media technology. He has worked for Globo TV Network in Brazil since 2006, having held multiple positions, and currently acts as Technology & Regulatory Specialist.

He has been the chair of the Technical Module of the Brazilian Digital Terrestrial Television Forum since 2020 and a member of the Brazilian Delegation in ITU-R Study Group 6 (and its Working Parties, 6A, 6B and 6C) and in the Inter-American Telecommunication Commission (CITEL) Permanent Consultative Committee II: Radiocommunications (PCC.II) since 2013. He is also an active participant in the Brazilian Society of Television Engineering (SET), the Brazilian Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters (ABERT), the ISDB-T International Forum, the International Association of Broadcasting (IAB), and the Future of Broadcast Television Initiative (FOBTV).

In ITU-R SG 6 (Broadcasting Service), he is a co-chair of the Rapporteur Group on the Future of Broadcasting and in ITU-R WP 6B (Broadcast service assembly and access), he is the chairman of SWG 6B-2 (Multimedia).

He has a Professional Master's Degree in Applied Computing, an Executive MBA in IT, an extension course in Networks and Video over IP, and a Bachelor's Degree in Electrical Engineering with an emphasis in Electronics.