

Ms. Wesam Sedik is currently the technical affair director at National Telecommunication Regulatory Authority (NTRA) of Egypt, and vice-rapporteur and liaison officer for Q4/1 in ITU-D SG1.

He is responsible for managing business governance and decision support units as well as follow up of different task forces within NTRA. He also manages the technical secretariat of the Egyptian IoT Forum, which is a platform for accelerating IoT services through open dialogue for all stakeholders in the Egyptian market.

Throughout his 20 years of career in the NTRA in different managerial positions, he gained extensive experience in the area of licensing & regulations, strategic planning and business studies for introducing new services in the Egyptian market.

Mr. Sedik holds a Bachelor of Science degree in communication in 2000. Then in 2012, he got his MBA in finance and economics. In 2016, he finished his Bachelor degree of Law.