

Prof Sizwe Lindelo Snail ka Mtuze holds a LLB from the University of Pretoria with Tax Law and Cyberlaw electives and an LLM degree from Unisa. Currently completing his LLD at Fort Hare University. He is a practising legal practitioner with the law firm, Snail Attorneys at Law, as well as International Co-ordinator of the African Centre for Cyberlaw and Crime Prevention (ACCP) based at NMU. Sizwe is an Adjunct Professor in the Mercantile Law Department of Nelson Mandela University (NMU) Law Faculty.

Prof Snail ka Mtuze is the author of various articles on cyber law. He has given lectures for the Law Society of South Africa (LSSA), Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, University of Johannesburg, Fort Hare University and University of Pretoria. He is co-editor and author of the third Edition (2012) and Fourth Edition (2021) of Cyberlaw@SA.

He was a member on the ICT REVIEW Panel of the Department of Telecommunications and Postal Services (DTPS), serving as the Chairperson of the E-commerce Committee (Digital Society as renamed) within the panel sub-committees. Prof Snail ka Mtuze served on the National Cyber Security advisory Counsel of the DPTS.

Prof Snail ka Mtuze was member of inaugural South African Information Regulator (2016-2021). He was a member and Chairperson for the LSSA, E-Law Committee (2013 – 2020). He is a Trainee Adjudicator at the South African Institute of Intellectual Property Law, (SAIIPL) specialising in, Domain Disputes. He is co-founding member of the Annual Cyberlaw Conference and the Annual Lex-Informatica (2008 – 2020). Sizwe ka Mtuze is a WASPA Adjudicator (2008 – 2016) and a Research Fellow in the field of Cyberlaw with the University of Fort Hare since 2014 until 2022.

Prof Snail ka Mtuze is on the Advisory Board for CyberBrics – FGV University Brazil since 2019. Prof Snail Ka Mtuze has also been appointed as a Visiting Professor at the FGV-CTS University, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil since 2022