FRANCISCO FONSECA

Francisco is currently VP of National Cybersecurity at BitSight. Co-founded AnubisNetworks in 2006 and has served as CEO from January 2006 to August 2019. AnubisNetworks was acquired by BitSight in 2014.

Prior to AnubisNetworks, Francisco Fonseca founded Crashless, a managed services provider specializing in complex Microsoft-based services.

Was Vice President of the National Association of Young Business People (ANJE) and taught at Moderna and Nova Universities.

Francisco attended the "Advanced Program in Entrepreneurship and Innovation Management" from Católica Lisbon; the Advanced Management Program from the Kellogg School of Management and Católica and "PADE - Senior Executives & CEO Program" from AESE.

He holds a degree in Management and Computer Science from Minho University.