

LEONARDO MARQUES CAMPOS

Leonardo Marques Campos graduated from IESB (Institute of University Education of Brasília) with a B.Sc. in Electrical Engineering with an emphasis on Telecommunication in 2005. He has been working at the Brazilian National Telecommunication Agency (Anatel) since 2005 and for 18 years has been working at Anatel's Certification Management Product, acting as a senior analyst of conformity assessment processes for products authorized for the Brazilian telecommunication market. Coordinated study groups created by the sector's Regulatory Agency for the review of technical standards applied in the evaluation of RF, EMC, Electrical Safety and SAR in ICT equipment and in preparing operational procedures for Brazil's compliance programs in telecommunication devices. He is currently the Compliance Coordinator of Telecommunication Products, managing product evaluation processes and market surveillance programs at the Agency. Participate as Brazilian delegate in ITU-T SG5 since 2018.