

CARMEN ORIONDO GATES

Dr. Carmen Oriondo Gates, an officer of the National University of Engineering at the National Institute of Research and Training in Telecommunications in Lima-Peru, works now as Specialist in the Training Department, reviewing the specialized training portfolio and promoting digital skills development in vulnerable communities in Peru.

Her previous assignments include Director of Studies and Projects, Chief of the Technology Transference Department, Chief of the Training Department, among others.

Dr. Carmen Oriondo Gates worked in the creation of the Peruvian Association of Business Incubators - PERUINCUBA and continues supporting the promotion of entrepreneurship in her country with focus on gender, rural communities and handicap population.

She holds a Bachelor in Science, engineer degree, an MBA, a Master Degree in Education, a PhD in Business Administration and various certificates from technical events in Spain, USA, Korea and in the United Kingdom.