

NATÁLIE TERČOVÁ

Natalie Tercova, M.A. & M.A., is a specialist at the Interdisciplinary Research Team on Internet and Society (IRTIS) and a Ph.D. student of Media Studies at Masaryk University, Czech Republic. As part of her research activities, she focuses on the digital skills of children and adolescents, online privacy, and e-health literacy. She also serves as a Generation Connect European Youth Envoy at International Telecommunication Union, United Nations.