

Ms. Annalisa Durantini

Annalisa Durantini is a Senior Officer at AGCOM, the independent Italian Regulatory Authority for communications, where she has worked since 2009 in both the audiovisual and the electronic communications sector, dealing with broadcasting, fixed and mobile networks, network neutrality, IoT, online platforms.

She has served as responsible for several radio spectrum management and assignment procedures. In 2020, she was appointed as Coordinator of Frequency planning and authorizations Unit of the Infrastructure and Services Directorate at Agcom.

She served as peer associate in international projects, expert in many European projects and member of RSPG and BEREC working groups.

She has taught as Contract Professor of ICT Economics, Radiocommunication Systems, Mobile and multimedia networks at Universities of Tor Vergata, LUISS Guido Carli and Link Campus in Rome.

She co-authored around 30 international peer-reviewed scientific publications. She served as a Technical Program Committee member of IEEE International Symposia and Conferences.

From 2002 to 2009 she worked as researcher and project manager at Radiolabs, a laboratory at University of Rome Tor Vergata for applied research in the field of telecommunications.

She graduated cum laude with a M.S. degree in Telecommunication Engineering in 2002, a Ph.D. degree in Telecommunications and Microelectronic Engineering in 2005 and with a master's degree on Engineering for public administration in 2010 from University of Rome Tor Vergata.