

CRISTINA VOLPIN

Cristina Volpin is a Competition Policy Expert in the Competition Policy and Strategy Unit at the OECD in Paris, where she currently leads works on competition, innovation, investment, and AI-related policy issues. She also leads EU-funded market study projects with non-OECD Member Countries. Previously, she worked at the European Commission's DG COMP on competition enforcement in AI and digital markets, and in private practice as a lawyer.

She teaches competition in AI and digital markets at KEDGE Business School in Paris and serves on the Advisory Board of the Centre for Business Law and Practice at the University of Leeds. She is a former Editor of the Journal of European Competition Law & Practice. Cristina holds a PhD in EU Competition Law from the University of Padua and completed a postgraduate course in Business Sustainability Management at the University of Cambridge.