Title: China Views for the Proposal to establish Global Telecommunication Organization

1. Abstract:

The administration of China will be providing the view on the proposal by the United Nations High Commission on Structure (UNHCS) the creation of Global Telecommunication Organization (GTO) to replace ITU taking into considerations the issues that has been raised in the information document (COM G–TD-1-E). This contribution will specifically focus on the funding mechanism to support the annual budget of CHF 150M.

2. Introduction

The study group is mandated to study and recommend the operational aspects of GTO in the three key areas i.e. location, working methods and funding. This Working Party (WP) will specifically focus on Issue 3 as follows:

Funding Mechanism to support the reduction of annual budget from CHF 150M to CHF 100M -

- Contribution mechanism from members of either flat fee or proportional funding
- Other revenue resources

3. China Views and Proposal

China has study the issue of funding mechanism that were raised by UNHCS and taking into account the options and considerations as reported in the information document (COM G–TD-1-E). China has the following views and proposal:

Funding Mechanism to support the annual budget -

- We support the structure collection to be in accordance to the multiple levels in accordance to the economic level for each member state. Details study need to be conducted by this WP on the economic level criteria and the recommended tier fee structure. Notwithstanding the fee structure, the service and rights shall be equal to all members.
- We proposed that other revenue resources such as publications is maintained
- We proposed that GTO to look into non-traditional revenue stream such as sponsorship for the GTO event and meeting.
- Other proposal is for GTO to increase training/seminar module to a more competitive pricing.
