Subject: Congratulatory Message

Dear Sir,

I would like to extend my warm congratulations and best regards to you and all the officials of the International Telecommunication Union on the occasion of the 150th anniversary of the creation of ITU. Creation of ITU was a significant event which marked an important turn in strengthening international collaboration among ITU membership for development and rational use of all kinds of telecommunications throughout the world. For the long-standing period of 150 years since the creation of the International Telegraph Union, ITU has played a pivotal role in developing telecommunication/ICT, which contributed to building the Information Society all around the world.

I hope ITU will make a great contribution to continuous development of telecommunication/ICT ecosystem.

I, availing myself of this opportunity, would like to express my deep thanks to ITU for sincere assistance and cooperation for development of telecommunications in our country in the past and hope for your active role to continue this history of admirable assistance and cooperation in future. I wish you great success in your work, good health and happiness of your family.

Accept, sir, the assurance of my highest consideration.

Kwang Chol KIM
Minister
Ministry of Posts and Telecommunications
