

Karol Okoński

Under-Secretary of State

Graduate in Management and Economics at Gdańsk University of Technology (2001) with a master of science and engineer degree.

Program and Project Manager holding executive positions in consulting services as well as banking and postal services. In 2001-2012 was involved in numerous IT projects on behalf of the international consulting company Accenture Sp. o.o., and then worked as IT Director at Polish Post Office Digital Services and FM PBP Bank. Holder of the PMP, Prince 2 Practitioner and ITIL certificates as well as participant of numerous trainings regarding IT systems implementation and IT governance. Specialized in complex integration projects as well as in change management and development cycle processes.

Privately - a passionate of Latin-American literature, watchmaking, photography and sport.

Married, two children.