

Mr. Patric Remus - BIO DATA

Patric Remus from Germany has an Engineering Degree specializing in Telecommunications. He studied in Germany and completed parts of his studies at UCLA and of the University of Queensland. He has over 20 years of telecom experience - over 10 years outside of Germany.

He worked in various Telecom Consultancy projects for example Frequency Spectrum Management. He was adviser to the Ministry of Telecommunications in Saudi Arabia. In the recent years, he worked also on the implementation of Emergency Communication System in Europe and abroad.

In this respect, he worked also extensively on Professional Mobile Radio (PMR) System implementation for Disaster Communication and Early Warning.

Patric worked for the last 15 years as Vice President for a German Telecommunications Consultancy Company in its Asia Pacific Representation office in Bangkok.