Mr. Wisit Atipayakoon – BIO DATA

Wisit Atipayakoon currently works in the International Telecommunication Union (ITU) Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific as a "Specialist in Telecommunication Infrastructure Development" for Telecommunication Development Bureau (BDT).

Since last year he has implemented the project "Rehabilitation and Reconstruction of Telecommunication Infrastructure in Earthquake/ Tsunami-hit Areas" for four countries namely Indonesia, Maldives, Bangladesh, and Sri Lanka. He also works closely with ITU Headquarters in Geneva to promote the Tampere Convention and assists countries in implementing the Convention.

Before he joined the ITU in 2005, he had worked several years in telecom and IT companies such as Lucent Technologies, Global Crossing, Asia Netcom, and SAS.

His background includes telecommunication engineer in transmission and optical networking in Lucent Technologies Singapore and Thailand, consultant for Business Continuity Programme for Asia Global Crossing and project manager for several telecom and IT projects.