

Mr. Craig Williams - BIO DATA

Mr. Craig Williams is the Regional Information Management Officer for the UN's humanitarian coordination office, OCHA. He is based in Bangkok and covers Asia and the Pacific. His work focuses on preparedness and emergency response in the field of information management.

Mr. Williams' work with the UN began 15 years ago and he has enjoyed extended stays in Cambodia, Myanmar, Kosovo and Eritrea before joining OCHA's office in Bangkok. Mr Williams has previously worked in the private sector and Non-Governmental Organisations and has an academic background in spatial analysis and development.