

Disaster and Risk Management: Fiji Experience

Tevita Kabakoro Rokobaro, Senior Engineer Telecom,
Department of Communications, Ministry of Information and Communications, Fiji

ITU/ESCAP Joint Regional Workshop on Disaster Communications

December 12 - 15, 2006 – Bangkok, Thailand

Strategies and Initiatives Towards Disaster Management

- ❑ Training – Operational/Professional Development/Institutionalization
 - ❑ Awareness
 - ❑ Emergency Planning and Coordination
 - ❑ Risk Management (CHARM Program)
 - ❑ Policy
 - ❑ Emergency Management
 - ❑ Research
-

Early Warning System Management Structure

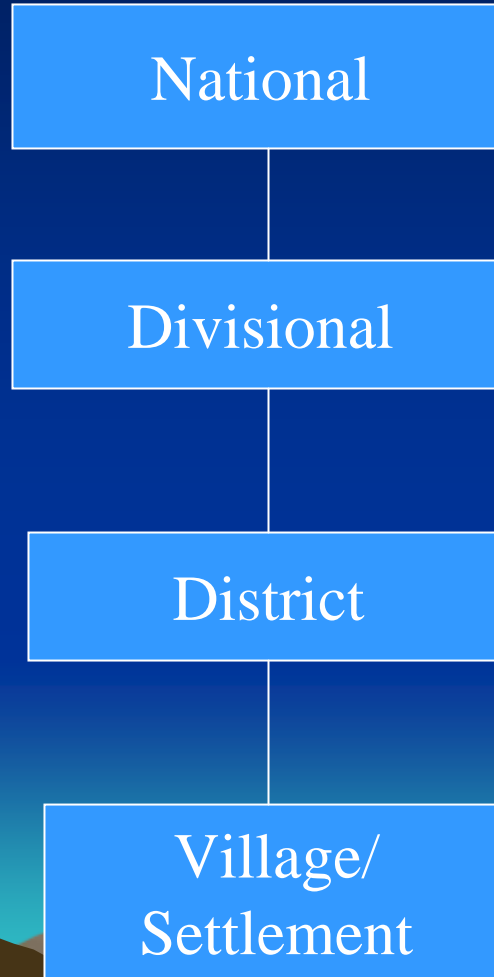

☐ National Disaster Plan

☐ Hazard Support Plan

☐ Organizational Plan

☐ Village Disaster Plan

☐ SOP

Challenges and Areas of Assistance needed in Disaster Management

Relationship between NDMO and Early Warning System

- ❑ Early Warning System for Cyclone, Flood, Earthquake, Tsunami, Landslide...& Responsible Agencies
 - ❑ NDMO Role in Issuance Of Public Advisories
 - ❑ Existing means of communication: FM Radio Station, HF System, Tel, Fax, E-mail, Rural Tele Centres
 - ❑ The Gaps
-

Opportunities

- ❑ Availability of a range of telecommunications systems
 - ❑ Greater community participation in national development
 - ❑ Community resilience and sustainable development
 - ❑ New development initiatives & partners within and outside the country
 - ❑ Good governance
 - ❑ Knowledge transfer through ICT alliance
-

QUESTION ?

THANK YOU

