

Bernard Yvetot, currently Vice-President international strategy at Orange Group Strategy division, is in charge of coordinating Orange Group relations with Development Financial Institutions (DFI) and partnerships with Asian Telcos.

He has previously held several positions in the French Ministry of Economy in Paris and abroad. He has been deputy Economic Counsellor at the French Embassy in Beijing and Economic Counsellor in Tokyo back in the 80's. After 1992, he has joined the Foreign Investment Promotion division of the French Ministry of Economy, taking part in the creation of the Invest in France Agency in 2001 where he held the position of Executive Vice-President till 2006. He then worked for the French National Agency for Industrial Innovation before joining Orange in 2008.