

Session 7	Looking forward: Accessible Broadcasting
Title of presentation	Broadcasting in the Caribbean
	Cletus Kennedy Bertin Director for Public Sector Modernisation Ministry of Public Service, St. Lucia Cletus Kennedy Bertin, Ph.D. is presently the Director for Public Sector Modernisation in the Ministry of Public Service, Information and Broadcasting, Government of Saint Lucia. He has worked primarily in the fields of Organisational Change Management, Organisational Development and Information and Communications Technology (ICT), for over seventeen (17) years with various Governments as well as regional and international organisations, as a full-time employee and as a consultant, including: Project Manager, Institutional Strengthening Project, Organisation of Eastern Caribbean States (OECS) Secretariat; Capacity Building Expert, IBM Global Business Services (Belgium) in the Regional Management Office for a European Union ICT Project in Dominica, Grenada &amp; St. Vincent; Regional Consultant, Eastern Caribbean Telecommunications Authority (ECTEL) for ICT Pilot Projects in the ECTEL Member States; Change Management Consultant, Office of Governance, Government of Belize; Regional ICT Specialist, The World Bank, Global Information &amp; Communication Technologies Department for the development of the E-Government for Regional Integration Project (EGRIP) in the OECS; Knowledge and Information Manager, United Nations Department for Economic and Social Affairs (UNDESA), based at the Caribbean Centre for Development Administration (CARICAD) in Barbados and Deputy Director, Public Sector Reform Unit, Office of the Prime Minister in St. Lucia. Dr. Bertin also serves as a Member on the Board of Governors of the Sir Arthur Lewis Community College, a Member of the National Competitiveness &amp; Productivity Council (NCPC) in Saint Lucia and served on the Board of Directors of the University of the Southern Caribbean (USC), formerly Caribbean Union College (CUC), in Trinidad and Tobago from 2006 to 2011.

For examples, see: <http://itu.int/ITU-T/worksem/cce/bios.html>