

Christine L. Hendricks DTL

Executive Director - Jamaica Council for Persons with Disabilities

A passionate advocate for the education and empowerment of persons with disabilities, Christine Hendricks is currently the Executive Director of the Jamaica Council for Persons with Disabilities (JCPD). With extensive local and international experience, Dr. Hendricks has been a vibrant speaker and presenter at workshops and seminars dealing with various aspects of disability. As a member of the community of persons with disabilities, she has lent her considerable expertise and experience to the Advisory and Management Boards on Disabilities and the Abilities Foundation as a Board member. She has also served on several working groups and committees, including the Jamaica's VISION 2030 and the National Oversight Committee for the Sustainable Development Goals.