

Mr. Oscar Zagarzazú

Industrial engineer (electronic option) graduated from Facultad de Ingeniería de La República Oriental Del Uruguay, with a master in administration of telecommunications companies. Works for ANTEL since 1979, where he currently serves as general deputy manager of business strategy. He is professional with a large knowledge of telecommunication industry. He has been working as a consultant in the telecommunication area in the Americas region (Argentina, Paraguay and Costa Rica). He also serves as vice president of ANTEL'S branch in the United States.