

Dr. Ahmed Omer Almobarak, MBBS, MD, DCP.

Ahmed Almobarak a graduate of faculty of Medicine U of K, hold an MD Pathology degree from U of K and had diploma of cytopathology form Turkey.

Ass Professor of Pathology-Faculty of Medicine –UMST, lecturer at Faculty of Postgraduate U of K.

Consultant Cytopathologist – Ibn Sina Teaching Hospital.

Founder & Vice President of the only Sudanese Medical Laboratory Chain; Total Lab Care Group (TLC).

Establisher of many diagnostic Centers in Khartoum & other states.

Consultant and board member in many healthcare projects in different files like; pharmaceutical industry, universities, private hospitals & NGOs.

Active member of the Board of Directors- Patient Helping Fund (NGO); the second most common service provider in Sudan after ministry of Health.

More than 40 scientific publications in regional & international peer reviewed journals focusing in no communicable diseases namely DM, Hypertension, Breast and Cervical Cancers.

Active contribution in national, regional & international scientific conferences.