

Bio: Mustafa Al MAHDI, ITU Arab Regional Office

Mustafa Al MAHDI, holds a Master Degree in Telecommunications Management and BSc in Telecommunication Engineering.

From May, 2005 to July, 2013, he worked for National Telecommunication Corporation of Sudan for 9 years and in different sections, ranging from technical and regulatory issues (licensing, interconnection, QoS, spectrum management,...etc) to international relations.

In August 2013, he joined the ITU in the Arab regional Office and he is responsible for Arab Least Developing Countries enabling environment programme, ICT & Climate Change, Smart and Sustainable Cities, IoT, E-waste, Emergency Telecommunication, ITU Academy and the regional coordinator for capacity building programmes and ITU Arab CoEs Network.