

JFPR 2014

Office of Cofinancing Operations

30 April 2014

Agenda

1. Good Projects in the Past
2. Ongoing Projects
3. ADB and JFPR
4. Processing of TA and Grant
5. JFPR TA
6. JFPR Grant

Japan
Fund for
Poverty
Reduction

1. Good Projects in the Past

- Livelihood Database

1. Sustainable Livelihoods for Affected Communities (Indonesia)

- ✓ Improved the livelihoods of coastal communities affected by 2004 earthquake and tsunami.

"Over 4,000 registered members can benefit from Livelihood Members Database for production results, and connections to buyers or markets, by utilizing digitally accumulated data. "

1. Good Projects in the Past (cont'd)

- Rice Knowledge Bank

2. Improving Poor Farmers' Livelihoods Through Rice Information Technology (Cambodia, Thailand, and Vietnam)

✓ Improved the livelihood of poor farmers through application of agricultural information, using Rice Knowledge Bank, a digital service of IRRI.

"Almost 5,000 farmer intermediaries were trained to use the digital service."

IRRI: International Rice Research Institution (Philippines)

Japan
Fund for
Poverty
Reduction

2. Ongoing Projects

- Digitally Automated Customs Management System

3. Supporting Participation in the South Asia Subregional Economic Cooperation Trade Facilitation (Bhutan, Bangladesh and Nepal)

✓ Strengthens the technical and institutional capacity of three countries' customs.

✓ Promotes effective operations of digitally automated customs management system.

3. ADB and JFPR

- JFPR was established in 2000 to support ADB's fight against poverty.
- JFPR aims to reduce poverty and support capacity-building efforts in DMCs.

Modalities

ADB

Loan (large scale)
Grant (broader scope in terms of sectors, and can support more traditional approaches)
TA (PPTA, CDTA, PATA and RDTA)

JFPR

Grant (poverty reduction focus, and innovative approaches)	161 projects ($ 464 mil) From 2000 to 2013
TA (mainly support CDTA)	147 projects ($ 159 mil) From 2009 to 2013

Japan
Fund for
Poverty
Reduction

4. Processing of Grant and TA

Interested proponents may contact ADB staff in ADB Country Office or at Headquarters

The ADB staff prepares Grant or TA proposal

OCO reviews the proposal to ensure consistency with JFPR objectives and guidelines set by the Government of Japan

The Government of Japan approves the project

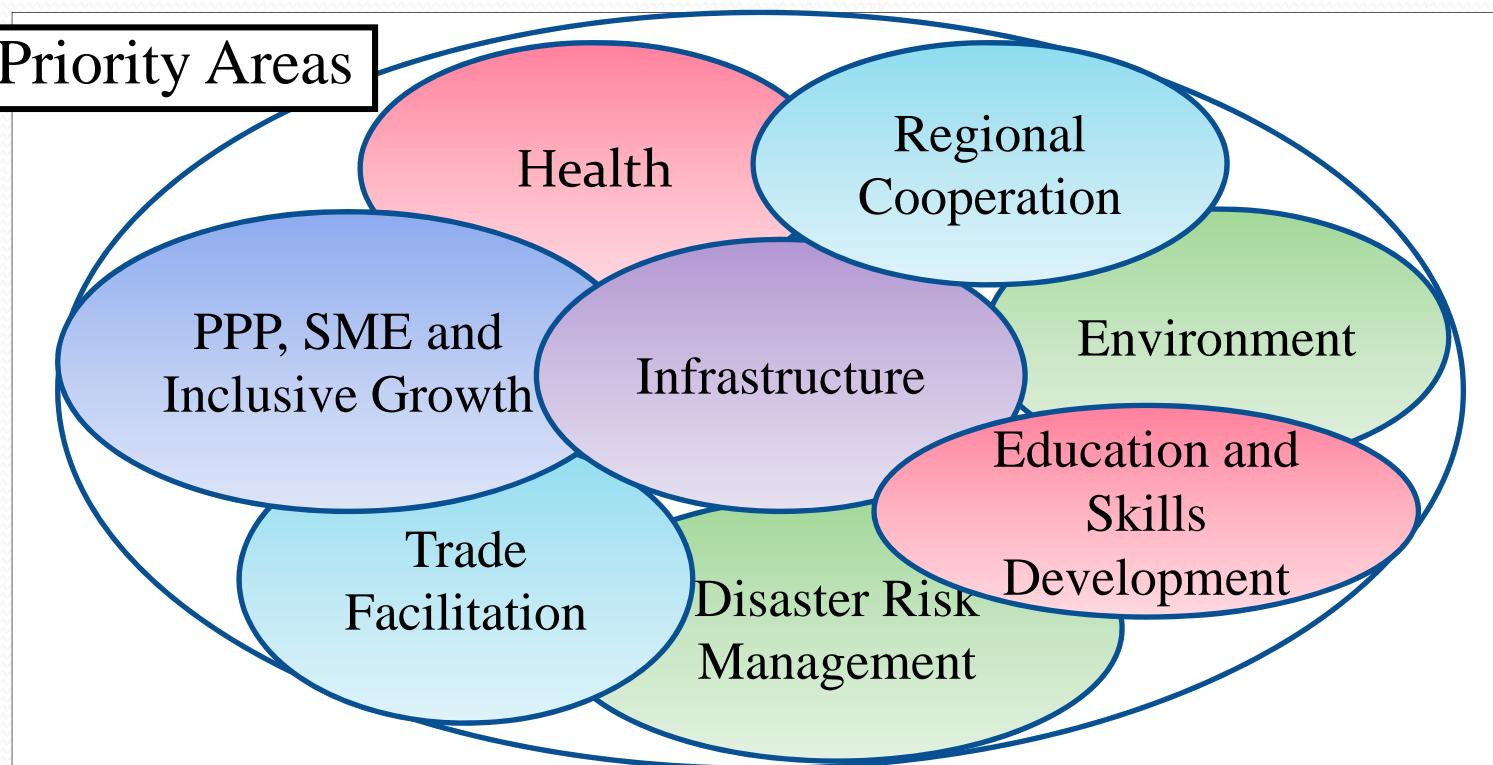

ADB approves the project

5. JFPR TA

- Maximum Amount per project: $2 million

Priority Areas

- JFPR TA requires alignment with MDBs and ADB's Strategy

6. JFPR Grant

- Maximum Amount per project: $3 million

As Key features, JFPR Grant

- Supports poverty reduction with capacity development activities
- Encourages innovative approaches

In addition, it

- Requires alignment with Japanese bilateral assistance
- Promotes ownership of local people
- Encourages direct participation of NGOs

Number of TAs Approved in 2010-2013 by Country

Number of Grants Approved in 2010-2013 by Country

Thank you.

ありがとうございました。

Japan
Fund for
Poverty
Reduction

