

Bio data – Ilyas Ahmed, Maldives

Ilyas Ahmed is the Chief Executive of the Communications Authority of Maldives (CAM). He has been with CAM since 2002, where he was involved heavily in many development initiatives of the country, including the liberalisation of the Maldives Telecommunications Sector. More recently, had been instrumental in the development and formulation of the National Broadband Policy of Maldives.

He has also worked for the national telecommunications company Dhiraagu, where he was a key member of the team that introduced GSM mobile services to the country. Mr. Ahmed has over 25 years of experience in the field of communications.

He is also the Chairman of the Management Committee of the Asia Pacific Telecommunity (APT). Mr. Ahmed holds an MSc in Operational Telecommunications from Coventry University UK, and BEng in Information and Electronics from Curtin University of Australia.

August 2015