Mr. Shah is Member I.T in the Ministry of IT & Telecommunication, Pakistan. He is responsible for overall IT strategy and policy framework for the proliferation of IT sector and its related services in the country. He has an experience of more than 17 years in ICT industry mostly working in United States in various capacities from development to management in fortune 500 companies as well as tech startups working on the cutting edge Voice & IT technologies. His exposure to technology is diverse due to his experience in different industries and vertical segments ranging from Telecom, Banking and Next Generation software & hardware developers.

Academic Back Ground:

Masters in Business Administration – Major in CIS – University of Southern New Hampshire, USA

BSc Electrical Engineering – University of Engineering & technology, Peshawar, Pakistan

Executive certificate in Psychology of effective management – Booth School of business, Chicago, Illinois, USA

Career Path:

Member IT , Ministry of IT & Telecom, Pakistan – 2016-to-Current

Director ITO, CapitalOne bank, USA – 2012-2016

Senior Consultant – Microsoft – USA – 2012

Director T-Systems (Deutsche Telekom) Voice Platform Engineering – USA 2005 -2012

Senior Member Technical Staff – Sonus Networks- USA 2001-2005

Member Technical Staff – Comverse - USA – 2000-2001