

Nguyen Phi Long Biography

Nguyen Phi Long (Vietnam) has been working as a state official at Authority of Radio Frequency Management (ARFM) of the Ministry of Information and Communications (MIC) of Viet Nam since 2010. Currently, he works in the Assignment and Licensing Division and takes responsibilities for assignment and licensing for public and private communication networks. After graduating from Hanoi National University with a BA in Electronics and Telecommunication, he received the Master degree in Telecommunications in 2015. He has good knowledge of microwave communications, calculations of radio links and interference, regulations on channel spacing, etc. In addition, he is now responsible for research on new technology of communications, new radio networks deployed in Vietnam in order to propose regulations on management and licensing.