

Ms. Rosalie Dobles Dagulo (Sally), a Social Worker by profession, acts as the Assistant Bureau Director of the Protective Services Bureau of the Department of Social Welfare and Development of the Philippines. Concurrently, she is also the Chief of the Child Protection and Placement Division of the said Bureau. She has a wide and extensive experience in the field of Child Protection, working the Department since 1990, particularly in the field of Child and Youth Welfare, Center and Residential Care, Alternative Parental Care and Adoption. She started her career through working with non-government organizations, such as the Educational Research and Development Assistance Foundation, Inc (ERDA), mainly working in child and youth welfare programs, particularly their advocacies in schools and for out-of-school children and youth.

She regularly shares her expertise to her peers, colleagues and partners within and outside the Department through participating as a Resource Speaker and Trainer in various trainings, fora and workshops. Being a seasoned Resource Person, she has spoken and imparted her knowledge before judges, lawyers and fellow social workers in various capacity building seminars in the advocacy, policy formation and implementation of child protection programs, especially in handling cases involving children in need of protection, which the Department partners with National Government Agencies (NGAs), Non-Government Organizations (NGOs) and International Governmental Organizations (IGOs).

She obtained her Bachelor's Degree in Social Work (BS Social Work) in 1985 from the Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Maynila (PLM). She also obtained units in Masters in Social Work from the University of the Philippines, Diliman.

She lives in the suburbs of the City of San Jose del Monte, Bulacan, and is happily married with one child.
