

ENGR. ERIC DE LOS REYES

Engr. de los Reyes is a civil engineer by profession but he has been involved in the telecoms business for more than 20 years. After his 3-year stint in the US as one of the Project Managers of the Pitometer Associates, he joined Cruz Telephone Company (CRUZTELCO), Inc. in 1990 as an Assistant Manager for Operations. In 1995 he assumed the position of Vice President for Operations and Marketing. The position he holds up to this date. He is also a long time member of the Philippine Association of Private Telecommunications Companies (PAPTELCO) Board. He became its President in 1998 until this year. He likewise have been representing the PAPTELCO in the board of the umbrella organizations of telecommunications carriers, the PCTO or the Philippine Chamber of Telecommunications Operators. He is currently its Chairman. He is the president of a company called Lithra Solutions Inc. that develops mobile applications solutions which he has recently founded. Engr. delos Reyes has been a member of the Philippine delegations to various international conferences or meetings, particularly in the ITU and the APT.