

Biodata:

Telecommunications Systems Engineer by Profession with 28 years of experience in the telecommunication sector, 15 years in the public sector in aeronautical & meteorological field engineering. Twilight of career responsible for the implementation (project management) of the first ever 2G/2.5G GSM rural network in the Solomon Islands with Solomon Telekom Company Limited in 2008/9. Currently serving as the Director Regulatory Resources and is responsible for spectrum management functions and licensing with the Telecommunications Commission of the Solomon Islands (Regulator) and the Solomon Islands Government member representative to the advisory committee for ICANN, ITU national response team leader focal point for the development of analogue to digital TV broadcasting roadmap and chairman of the Solomon Islands Television Board for the past six years. Vice Chairman, Pacific Islands Meteorological Communications Infrastructure Panel since 2016 and participated in the development and establishment of the Digital HF Radio Early Warning and Disaster Communication Solution for the Solomon Islands Government National Disaster Management Office of Solomon Islands in 2014/2015

