

Mr. SEREEDORJ Dashzeveg
Vice Chairman
Communications Regulatory Commission (CRC) of Mongolia

Mr. Sereedorj Dashzeveg has been appointed as Vice Chairman of the Communications Regulatory Commission (CRC) of Mongolia since October 2016.

He draws on over 18 years of experience in the ICT sector of Mongolia. Prior working at the CRC, he worked as Managing Director at the Technical Operation and Technology Department of Mongolia Telecom Company (MTC), Executive Director at the Career Mart Company, IT engineer at the “Vuteq Mongol” Japanese-Mongolian joint company and Head of IT department at the Social Welfare and Labor Ministry of Mongolia.

Mr. Sereedorj began his professional career in 1998 as IT engineer at the Center for Science and Technology Information in Mongolia and held several high-level positions since in the nation’s information communications and technology sector during his eighteen years of experience. He holds both Bachelor and Master’s degree in Information Technology and Software Engineering from Mongolian University of Science and Technology. He attended various professional trainings including Computer Aided Design and Computer Aided Manufacturing one year training in Matsuyama, Japan in 2005.