

Mr. Elvin Prasad works as a Senior Engineer ICT with the Ministry of Communications – Government of Fiji. He is also the ICANN Government Advisory Committee (GAC) Representative for his country.

Elvin holds a Diploma in Telecommunications Management, BSc in Engineering & Computer Science, PostGraduate Diploma in Computing and Information Systems and a MSc. in Information Systems.

He has been actively participating at ICANN and other Internet Governance and Diplomacy forums across the globe and sharing his experiences on Internet Governance issues and regulatory challenges. Mr. Prasad had been recently selected as an Internet Society Ambassador to IGF 2016 in Mexico.

His key areas of work include Spectrum Management, Cybersecurity, Policy and Regulation, Internet Governance, etc and has worked on a number of National ICT Development Projects in Fiji together with organizations such as the International Telecommunication Union (ITU), CTO and others.

Mr. Prasad wishes to become an evangelist for Cybersecurity & Internet Safety and supporting Net Neutrality/Internet Openness principles and Data Privacy.