

"Dr Supakorn Siddhichai graduated from Imperial College, London UK, in 2001. He worked at NECTEC as research scientist for 16 years. He has been involved with smart city initiative in Thailand since 2015 and led the implementation of smart city in Phuket. He joined DEPA in September 2017 as the director of Smart city promotion department. He is now in charge of driving smart cities around Thailand."