

Mr. Hannes Astok
Deputy Director and Senior e-Government Expert
e-Governance Academy, Estonia

Mr. Hannes Astok is Senior Expert and enthusiastic speaker for the information society, especially promoting the role of smart cities and challenges of the mobile governance.

Hannes is Senior Expert and Deputy Director for Strategy and Development in Estonian e-Governance Academy (www.ega.ee), providing training and consultancy for governments in Central Asia, Caucasus, South-East Europe, Middle East, Africa and other transition regions. During the last years, he has been working closely with governments of Ukraine, Namibia, Moldova, Palestine, Georgia, Mauritius, among others.

2012-13 Hannes was Adviser to the President of Estonia about the Information Society development.

Hannes was Member of the Estonian Parliament (Riigikogu) 2007-2011 and Deputy Mayor of Estonian second largest city Tartu 1997-2005.

As Member of the Estonian Parliament, he was dealing mainly with information society development, intellectual property, and electronic communication regulation issues.

He started his political career in Tartu, Estonian 2nd largest city, working for the decade for the City of Tartu as Deputy Mayor. Today Tartu is one of the world's leading cities in e-governance, providing for citizens and businesses wide variety of Internet and mobile phone based services.

Hannes holds the degree from Tartu University in journalism and public relations.

Contact:

hannes.astok@ega.ee

mobile +372 5091366

Skype: hannesastok

Links:

www.ega.ee

www.tartu.ee

www.eesti.ee

<http://e-estonia.com/>

<http://www.egov-estonia.eu/>

smartcitylab.eu