

PETER ARGENT

CODING SCHOOL FOUNDER

PERSONAL PROFILE

Pete is a passionate technologist and loves sharing his love of coding with people through education.

He believes understanding what is possible with technology, empowers people to take charge of their own lives and make a positive difference in their communities.

CONTACT

17/13-21 Abercrombie St
Chippendale NSW 2008
AUSTRALIA

pete@coderfactory.com

+61 457 529 801

peterargent.com
humanitariancode.org

EDUCATION

Griffith University
Bachelor of IT
2005

Trison Business College
Cert IV in Training and Assessment, 2016

SKILLS

- Education program development and delivery
- Vocational education and training for the technology sector
- Software design, development and deployment
- International development project experience
- Technology entrepreneurship

WORK EXPERIENCE

Coder Factory, Founder, director

SEP 2013 - PRESENT

- Founded coding school
- Developed and delivered variety of courses
- Created and developed community events
- Digital marketing
- Speaker and author

ITU (UN), Education Consultant

SEP 2016 - NOV 2016

- Design, develop and deliver an education program for university administrators in Philippines
- Taught university administrators how to build a coding bootcamp organisation
- Network and foster relationships with local educators.

IBM, Software Consultant

JAN 2003 - JUN 2012

- Software design, development and implementation
- Software training course development and delivery
- Project planning and management