

Regulating Electronic Waste in Thailand
Government Consultation Workshop
Bangkok, 27-28 August 2024

Title of presentation	Extended Producer Responsibility (EPR) scheme for E-waste management in Singapore
	Tng Mei Ling Deputy Director/Chief Engineer, Waste Management Division National Environment Agency Mei Ling is the Deputy Director and Chief Engineer of the Waste Management Division at the National Environment Agency. With a background in environmental engineering, Mei Ling oversees the Extended Producer Responsibility (EPR) schemes for e-waste and the beverage containers. Her responsibilities encompass the end-to-end implementation of the EPR schemes, including operations and verification processes. In addition to her role in EPR schemes, Mei Ling's work also extends to packaging initiatives, including the implementation of Mandatory Packaging Reporting and the disposable carrier bags charge to close the packaging loop and drive sustainable practices in packaging waste management.