

Regulating Electronic Waste in Thailand
Government Consultation Workshop
Bangkok, 27-28 August 2024

| Title of presentation   | Opening Remarks   |
|---|---|
|  | Ms.Theetanun Rattanasanyanuphap [Executive Director, Telecommunications Policy and Resources Management Bureau, Office of the National Broadcasting and Telecommunications Commission] Ms. Theetanun Rattanasanyanuphap has worked in telecom sector for over 20 years. She serves as Executive Director of Telecommunication Policy and Resource Management Bureau, mainly responsible for key telecom development policy design and implementation. Ms. Theetanun has strong experience in telecom business licensing, especially in service-based licensing. She also specializes in IMT spectrum allocation and auction design, telecom network expansion regulation, merger and acquisition regulation, rights of way and underground cabling regulation, as well as telecom masterplan. Moreover, she also played key role in promoting 5G and new technology adoption in vertical sectors such as smart agriculture and smart hospital. Currently, she is striving to push forward the development of AI guiding principle to promote the use of AI with good governance in telecom sector. She holds a Master in Technology Management from Asian Institute of Technology. She also gained certificate of Artificial Intelligence: Implications for Business Strategy Program from MIT Sloan Executive Education and certificate of Executive Program from Sasin Executive Education. |