

Brief Profile
Mohammad Najeeb Azizi, Ph.D

Dr. Mohammad N. Azizi is the Chairman of Afghanistan Telecom Regulatory Authority (ATRA). Dr. Azizi is an accomplished technology economist and social development expert with a long track record of achievements with the UN, USAID, World Bank, Government of Afghanistan and academic institutions. Dr. Azizi has served over the last two decades in multiple senior management and strategic positions in the public and private sectors with achievements in education, telecom, finance, transport sectors; and has policy contributions in public sector reforms, social development and governance. Since the establishment of the National Unity Government, Dr. Azizi has served as the Advisor to Afghanistan President on Civilianization and Transition in the Ministries of Interior and Defense; where he has led the process of civilianization at the Ministry of Interior. Meanwhile, Azizi is a regular Keynote Speaker to a number of platforms including WTIS, WITSA, WSI, SAARC-HRDC, and CFPP etc. He serves as Independent Peer Reviewer for a number of journals including Peer Review Board of SAARC Journal of HRD.

Dr. Azizi can be contacted at azizi@atra.gov.af or yesafghanistan@gmail.com.