

TENZIN NORBHU: Bio

Tenzin Norbhu is Head of Connectivity and Access Policy for Asia Pacific and is based in Singapore. Prior to working in Facebook, Tenzin managed the World Bank's ICT program and portfolio in Asia. She was lead ICT policy specialist and Program Coordinator at the World Bank. Tenzin has worked across Asia Pacific and Africa on connectivity policy and regulatory issues, digital government and digital economy issues. Tenzin also worked in the Royal Government of Bhutan as an engineer, policy maker and regulator. She is an engineer by training and has advanced degrees in business management and public policy.