

DR. ALIMOHAMMAD MONTAZERI

Dr. Alimohammad Montazeri is the Director-General of the Technical and Economic Planning Department in Iran Communications Regulatory Authority (CRA) from 2017. In addition, he is the Senior Assistant of Iran Telecommunication Research Center (ITRC) Dean as well as Member of Young Assistants Council in Iran ICT Ministry. He was also the Senior Consultant of the Deputy of Iran ICT Ministry for Technology, Innovation and International Affairs from 2016 to early 2018.

Science 2009, he has been a Senior Researcher in Communication Institute of Iran Telecommunication Research Center (ITRC) as the project manager and supervisor in several research projects including technical, pure scientific and feasibility study projects. He has many publications in the form of the indexed journal, conference proceedings, books and technical reports in the field of regulatory, wireless communications, signal processing, optimization as well as economic and strategic aspects of ICT plans.

He received his B.Sc. degree (2005), M.Sc. Degree (2008) and Ph.D. degree (2016), all in Electrical Engineering. His research, teaching and work interests include ICT regulation, tariffs, feasibility study of ICT projects (in terms of technical and economic), digital economy, wireless communications and signal processing, satellite communications, cellular networks and 5G, AI and IoT.