

Partner2Connect
National Roundtable Cambodia, 8-9 July 2024
Phnom Penh, 12206, Cambodia

Session	Session 2: Role of UN and international agencies in achievement of UN SDGs in Cambodia
	SULYNA ABDULLAH, Chief of Strategic Planning and Membership, ITU Sulyna Abdullah is the Chief of Strategic Planning and Membership, and Executive Director of the ITU-UNESCO Broadband Commission for Sustainable Development. Her portfolio includes strategic planning, UN affairs, membership relations, gender and emerging technologies including AI, space, cybersecurity, internet governance, connectivity and digital transformation. Prior to ITU, she spent two decades at the Malaysian Communications and Multimedia Commission (MCMC). She was MCMC's Chief Officer for Corporate Strategy and prior to leaving MCMC in 2019, she was their Chief Transformation Officer. After MCMC, Sulyna had a short stint in the private sector and took up a position in Netflix as Director of Public Policy for Southeast Asia. Sulyna has extensive experience in international public policy affairs and held numerous positions regionally and multilaterally representing Malaysia. Sulyna is a lawyer by training and is an Advocate and Solicitor of the Malaysian Bar.