

Ms. Anita Tikos

Desk Officer for International Affairs

National Cyber Security Center

Anita Tikos earned BA degree in International Relations and MA degree in European and international administrations. Gained work experience from 2011 as an international expert in IT and IT security questions. From the 1 of October 2015 she is the Desk officer for international affairs of the National Cyber Security Centre (NCSC) of Hungary, and she is the Hungarian national liaison officer in ENISA.