

Vasil Grancharov

Vasil Grancharov is Director of the Computer Security Incident Response Team Directorate to Executive Agency „Electronic Communication Networks and Information Systems” – govCERT.bg. He has acquired long professional experience in the use of information and communication technologies in emergencies. He has been involved in information security issues since 2006. He was the national contact point for the relations with the European Network and Information Security Agency (ENISA) in the period 2006-2009. Since 2009 he has been a member of ENISA’s Management Board. Since 2008, he has been Bulgaria’s national representative to NATO on issues of cybersecurity of public networks for non-classified information.