

Viktor Berishaj, Engineer of electronics, telecommunications and computers

Independent Adviser for electronic communications and IT in the Directorate for electronic communications, postal services and radio – spectrum. Formerly head of CIRT team of Montenegro during the Montenegro CIRT implementation process. Attended various training workshops regarding cyber security, including trainings in collaboration with IMPACT-Malaysia. Participated in various projects and working groups, including working group for the preparation of the Strategy of development of information society in Montenegro, and the Strategy for cyber security in Montenegro, participated in preparation of several Rule books and other acts regarding cyber security which Ministry for information society and telecommunications adopted.