

Yordan Iliev is currently working as a Director of research and development at “Sqilline business solutions” since September 2016. Healthcare IT Architect who understands the complexity of the industry and the technology, he fulfills engagements of driving technology-enabled strategic business transformation and product innovations, establishing effective relationships, policy and procedures for the governance of projects and programs and implementing robust infrastructure, architecture, and security. Leader in developing creative ways to use technology to solve business problems, optimize efficiencies, produce productivity gains, and enhance competitive advantage

In the period 2010-2016 he worked as a CIO of the National Oncology Hospital in Sofia, Bulgaria. “IT Manager of the year 2015” for “Innovations” awarded by CIO club Bulgaria, part of the European CIO club, where he was active member for the period 2011-2016. During his position as a CIO, he won several awards among which are “IT project of the year 2015” in healthcare for public sector, Best project 2014 @ Win MobileApp competition by Sqilline & SAP Bulgaria. He is the author of several IT security publications in CIO magazine published by ICT Media, licensee of IDG Corp., US and holds a certificate for 2nd Best IT Article "Key IT in corporate sector 2011" as one of them.

Yordan Iliev is ISO 9001:2008 Certified Internal Auditor, ISO/IEC 27001:2007 Certified Internal Auditor, certified “PACS for IT & Clinical Administrators” and “DICOM connectivity and configuration” by Siemens AG. He is also CCNA Security, ITIL v.3 Foundation certified.