Challenges for Child Online Protection

Lessons learned from 10th International Conference „Keeping Children and Young People Safe Online"

Szymon Wójcik
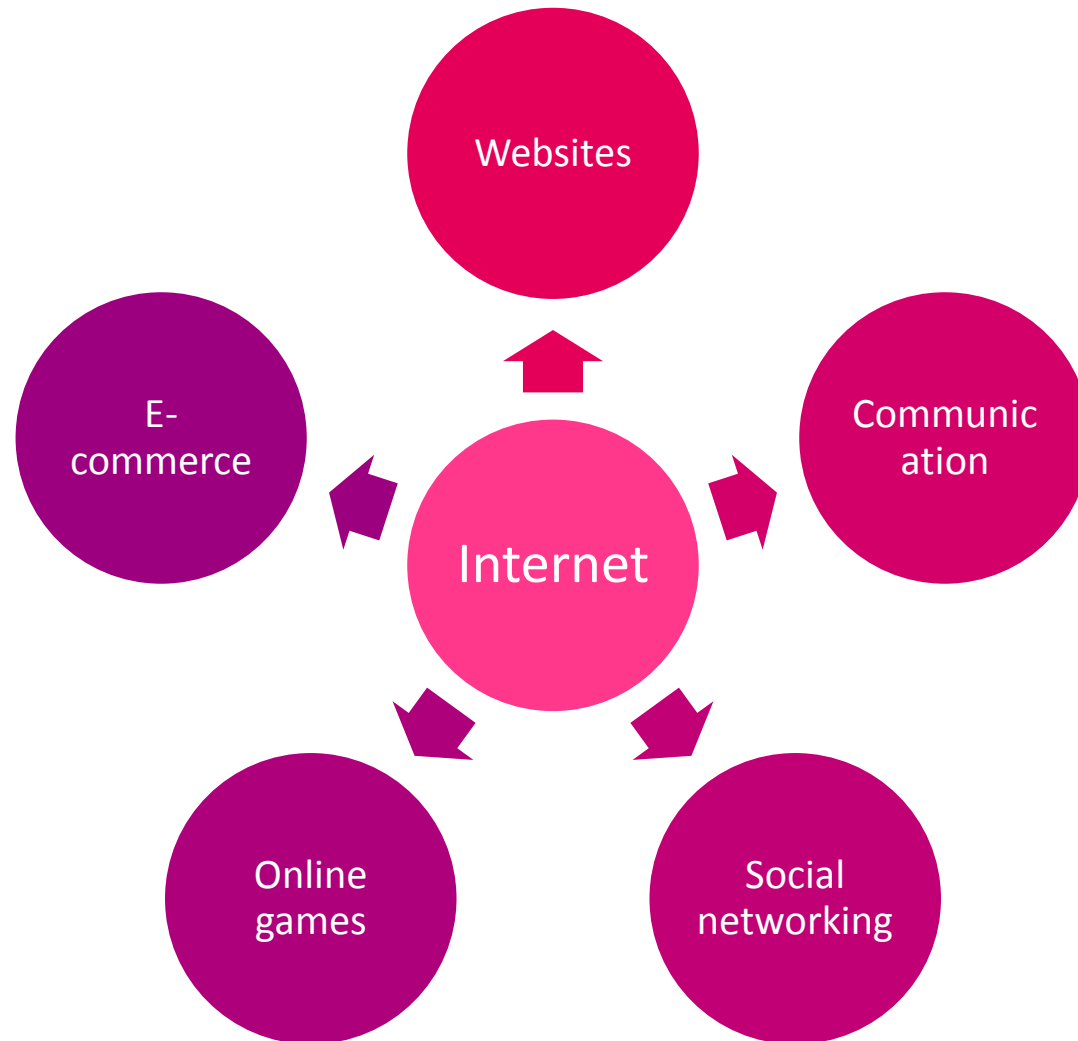

Empowering Children Foundation, Poland

Budva, 28.09.2016
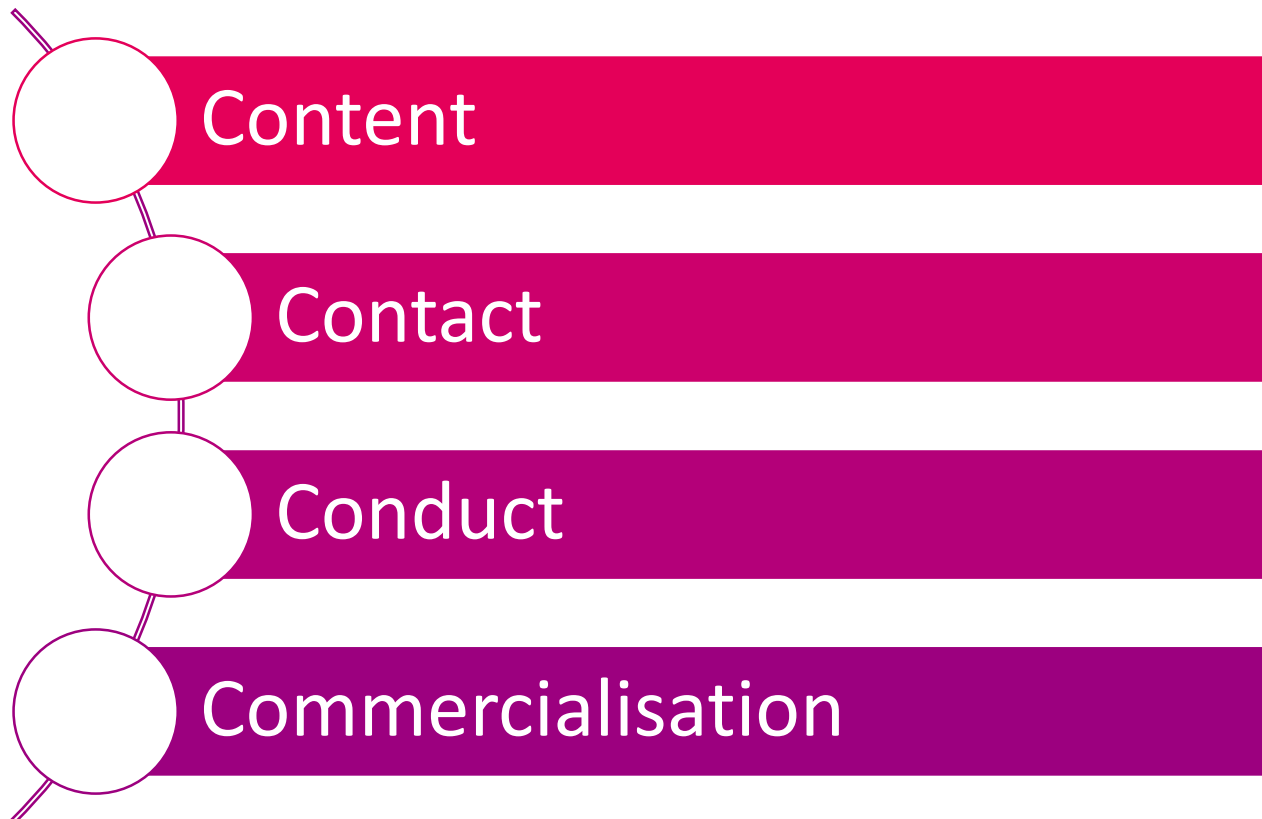

Internet as complex medium
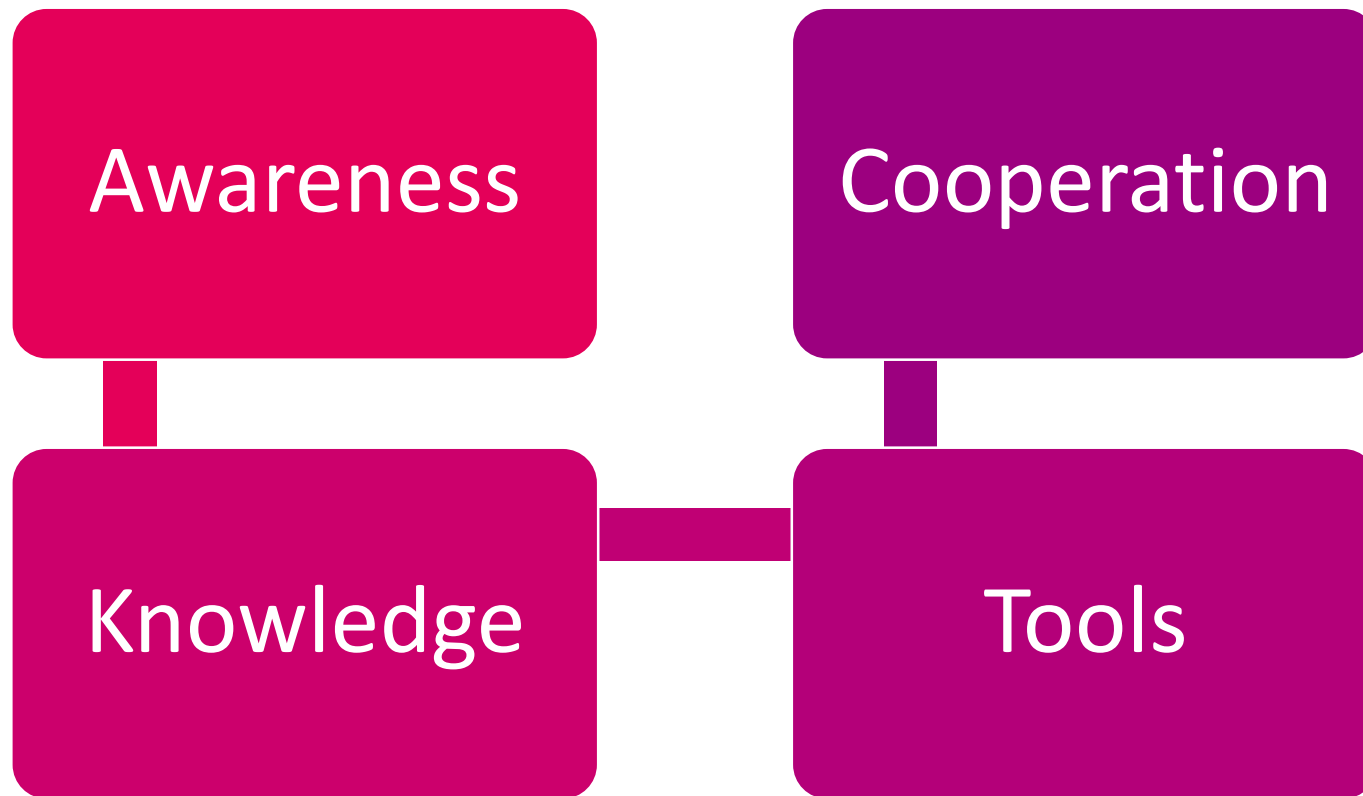

Child Online Protection

Dangerous:

4C

- Content
- Contact
- Conduct
- Commercialisation

Child Online Protection
What do we need?

Awareness

Cooperation

Knowledge

Tools

Online safety – classes in schools

Did you have classes in school regarding online safety?

I don't remember

14%

Yes

39%

No

47%

N=512, Polish youth 10-18, Apr 2016, TNS for Orange Foundation
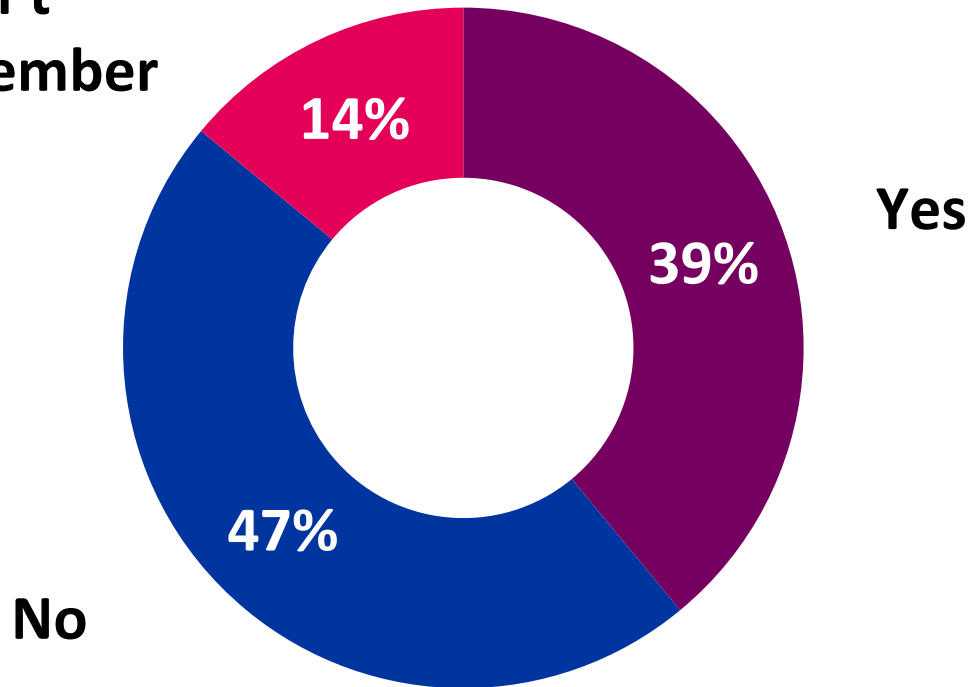

Online safety – classes in schools

Did you agree on rules regarding usage of internet by children at your home?

No 47% 53% Yes

N=512, Polish parents of children 10-18, Apr 2016, TNS for Orange Foundation

International Conference "Keeping children and young people safe online"

- 10th edition
- Warsaw
  20-21 Sep 2016
- Over 500 participants
- Over 50 speakers
- Streamed and recorded

Organisers:

EMPOWERING CHILDREN FOUNDATION • NASK • s@ferinternet.pl • klicksafe.de • ITU

Main Partner:

orange Fundacja

Co-financed:

THE VELUX FOUNDATIONS • FUNDACJA WSPÓŁPRACY POLSKO-NIEMIECKIEJ STIFTUNG FÜR DEUTSCH-POLNISCHE ZUSAMMENARBEIT

Overview of the agenda

Hurtful behaviour online - the dark sides of the Internet

"Serious games" - can entertainment support education?

New technologies in education and education about new technologies

How to protect children against harmful content?

Addictive potential of the Internet

How to manage the big data revolution?

Main points of discussions

- Dangerous content – not only pornography
- Cyberbullying – need of new approach
- Role of peer mediation

Main points of discussions

- Addictive potential – need of „digital detox"
- Promotion of positive usage (e.g. coding)
- Big Data – hope in GDPR

Main points of discussions

- No easy solutions – changes to rapid
- Media literacy towards making informed choice

Takeaways and next steps

- Continue the conference pltaform
- Share good practices with partners

Thank you very much
szymon.wojcik@fdds.pl