

Mauro Di Crescenzo

Frequency Coordination Manager – Responsible for frequency coordination and relevant Italian/International working groups activities.

He is mainly involved in National and International negotiations on spectrum regulatory matters and in several studies about frequency sharing between interfering networks. He was involved in International working groups studying mobile satellite network as well as coordination procedures between geo-stationary and non-geo-stationary satellite networks.