

Shefqet Meda

Graduated master in Electronic Engineering.

Certified by the Albanian state agency – INIMA, for database systems.

Certified by ITU for "Broadband network access" acknowledgement.

Certified by ICT for "master regulatory class" – London.

Certified by the Diplo Foundation for Children and Mobile Technology - Malta and Switzerland government.

Certified three times by ICANN - Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers, for participation in ICANN's programs.

For 9 years Director of the Technical Regulation Directorate at the Electronic and Postal Communications Authority – AKEP, 2008-2017.

2005-2007, Director of IT systems at Albanian Power Corporation.

2001-2005, IT and Oracle local database administrator at the Social Insurance Institute of Albania.

1998-2001, Network administrator, lector.

1992-1997, Technical Science Director near NIS of Albania.

1986-1992, Albanian Telecommunication Corporation.

Participant and contributor to local and international seminars and workshops in the field of telecommunications.

Member of NCUC - Noncommercial User Constituency and NCSG - Noncommercial Stakeholder Group of ICANN

Significant contribution to the regulatory reform of authorization, frequency spectrum management and numbering in Albania.